

QUOTATIONS from VOLUME 19 of ENVER HOXHA'S WORKS:

We have fought empty-bellied and bare-footed, but have never kowtowed to anybody. (p. 177)

We shall go to Moscow not with ten banners, but with only one, with the banner of Marxism-Leninism. (p. 91)

Even if we have to go without bread, we Albanians do not violate principles, we do not betray Marxism-Leninism. (p. 159)

Whether Albania is a socialist country or not does not depend on Khrushchev, but it has been decided by the Albanian people through the wars they have fought and the blood they have shed. (p. 165)

When the enemy attacks you, this means that you are on the right road. (p. 23)

Albania and the Albanian communists do not sell themselves either for rubles, or for wheat, or for dollars. (p. 164)

Real unity is achieved and strengthened only on the basis of Marxism-Leninist principles. (p. 83)

So far, no people, no proletariat and no communist or workers' party has assumed power without bloodshed and without violence. (p. 190)

The principled struggle against imperialism and revisionism has been and remains the road of our Party. (p. 291)
