

WILLIAM Z. FOSTER

THE CRISIS
IN THE SOCIALIST PARTY

Contents

CHAPTER ONE: The Failure of the Socialist Party and the Reason Why	1
Success Was Possible, 2. Why the Socialist Party Failed, 4.
CHAPTER TWO : A Generation of Reformism and Its Disastrous Effects	7
1. THE SOCIALIST PARTY'S FAILURE TO ASSUME MASS LEADERSHIP, 7. A. Passivity in Strikes and Other Struggles, 7. B. Contradictory Industrial Union Policy, 9. C. Anti- Labor Party Tendency, 10. D. Opportunist Trade Union Neutrality, 12. E. Opportunist War Policy, 14. F. Sabotaging the Russian Revolution, 15. G. Neck Deep in Class Collaboration, 18. H. Socialist Party Inertia in the Crisis, 19. A Word in Summary, 21.
CHAPTER THREE: A Generation of Reformism and Its Disastrous Effects (Continued)	25
2. THE WAR AGAINST THE LEFT WING, 23. The Two "Wings of the Party, 23. Early Phases of the Inner-Party Struggle, 26. The 1912 Split, 28. The 1919 Split, 31. The Communist Party, 33.
CHAPTER FOUR: The Present Situation in the Socialist Party	37
The Turn to the Left, 37. The Socialist Party's Petty- Bourgeois Leadership, 38.
1. THE QUESTION OF THE DAILY MASS STRUGGLES, 39. A. The New Socialist Party Sectarian Reformism, 40. Under-estimation of Immediate Demands, 41. C. The Retreat Before Fascism, 42. D. A Reactionary Peace Policy, 47. E. A Sectarian Labor Party Policy, 48. F. Thomas' Defeatism, 49.
2. THE QUESTION OF CULTIVATING THE REVOLUTIONARY FORCES, 51. A. Reformist Theoretical Weakness, 51, B. Hostility Against the United Front, 55. C. Unfriendly Attitude Towards the Soviet Union, 85. The Perspective of the Socialist Party, 60.	