

1/6
OF THE WORLD

By A. A. Heller

Why should there not be a patient confidence in the ultimate justice of the people? Is there any better or equal hope in the world?

Abraham Lincoln.

I think that Bolsheviks remind us of Antaeus, the hero of Greek mythology. Like Antaeus, they are strong in keeping contact with their mother, with the masses, who bore them, fed them and educated them. And as long as they keep contact with their mother, with the people, they have every chance of remaining invincible.

Joseph Stalin.

There was an old mythologist who was supposed, every time his feet touched the ground, to redouble his strength. When I go about the country... I feel that I regain my strength by just meeting the American people.

Franklin D. Roosevelt.
